

Home means to me my homeland Portugal. I fly there every summer. There are sunny beaches, which are full of tourists. In Portugal it is peaceful, child-friendly, and safe. All the people there are friendly and I am very sad whenever I must leave my homeland at the end of the summer, but I feel great when I think about the next summer holidays in Portugal. (Isabell, 8s)